21 Ways To Excel At Project Management
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper-time. He has run away from school so that he could skip school that afternoon and visit Aunt Polly. She is not pleased about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that she has been asked to a ball and shares her excitement. Tom is bored and envies his uncle who is out of town. Aunt Polly is satisfied, and Tom says he will go to the ball with her. After the meal, Tom goes out to the street to play with his friends. Tom's half-brother, Ben, is playing with his friends, and Tom is forced to join in the game. They finish the ball game and eventually return the way home.

When Tom arrives home in the evening, Aunt Polly is waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of nettle. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tin box.

Tom comes home at supper time. His mother tells him he'll have to be skipped school that afternoon and must remain in the house to clean up the back yard. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom and the new arrival eat their dinner and Tom's half-brother, Sid, tells Tom of the great adventure his father has about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly observes Tom's dejected attitude, and though she asks him if he has been skipping school that afternoon and going elsewhere, he refuses to answer her. Aunt Polly can see through Tom and asks him if he has been skipping school. Tom asks for a week of rest and Aunt Polly is pleased to hear him say it. Tom has sworn the boy will manage to disappear from the house.
