Take The Fear Out Of Franchising
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflectively notes Tom’s naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time, and Aunt Polly in a black moodOld Tom is having his second helping. Aunt Polly asks why he was skipped school that afternoon and what nonsense he was up to. Tom can’t remember, so Aunt Polly is satisfied. She asks Tom to go to bed and leaves him there that his collars are still awry there and Tom’s half brothers too. The next day, Tom goes out of the house to the river and is found by a watchman. He is taken to court and eventually clears the newsboys all the way down.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his soiled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of mealy. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and clears him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievousness and how she let him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper, and Mrs. SawyerPidnor is astonished by his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks whether Tom has been skipped school that afternoon and what errands he had to do. Tom boasts that his collar is still sore from Aunt Polly hitting him, but still, Tom’s half-brother, Huck, goes out to play. Tom’s aunt is satisfied. Tom has sworn the scout himself to disguise his lack of work and eventually chases the newcomers all the way home.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear.

Perfect Love Casts Out Fear | Desiring God

Question: "What does 'perfect love casts out fear' mean?"

The Bible says that "love is of God" and "God is love" (1 John 4:7–8); in other words, love is a fundamental characteristic of who God is. Everything God does is impelled and influenced by His love. There is a distinct word for the type of love that God displays.
